

INGVAR KENNE (b.1965 in Sweden)

<http://ingvarkenne.com>

He studied Photography Bachelor of Arts at the University of Gothenburg between 1988-1991.

Ingvar Kenne work has been exhibited worldwide, countries including England, France, Croatia, Spain, Sweden, Italy and Australia. He has received several fellow ship Grants from the Arts Council of Sweden.

The same year he completed his studies Kenne had a solo show at the Museum of Modern Art in Borås, Sweden. It was in 1992 Kenne published his first monograph – ON THE SIDE (Tidens Förlag, Sweden). Also, the exhibition toured over a two year period. He then embarked on several journeys around the globe.

The culmination was an around the world trip by motorcycle, resulting in his second monograph – CHASING SUMMER. (Bird Press 2004). Paul Theroux wrote the foreword.

In 2005 at the Cannes Lions festival, for an inaugural event called “New Photographers – The Hottest Talent Of Tomorrow”, Kenne was selected as one of 31 photographers worldwide, to be exhibited and discussed during a seminar. That exhibition toured Europe and showed in New York.

In 2009 he won the National Photographic Portrait Prize at NPG in Canberra. He was also runner up in the prestigious Moran Photographic Prize the same year.

In 2010 he was part of group shows at the Gold Coast Art Gallery as well as being selected again for the National Photographic Portrait prize, making it three out of three.

In 2012 his solo show CITIZEN, opened at the National Portrait Gallery in London in conjunction with a book launch, making it his third portrait monograph.

It has since toured five capital cities in Australia.

In 2014 he was included in final selection for the Bowness Prize at Monash Gallery for the 3rd time.

He is currently in production with his fifth monograph THE BALL and in post production on his debut feature drama film The Land, as director and cinematographer.

Kenne divides his time between Sydney and New York.
